

Lesson 1

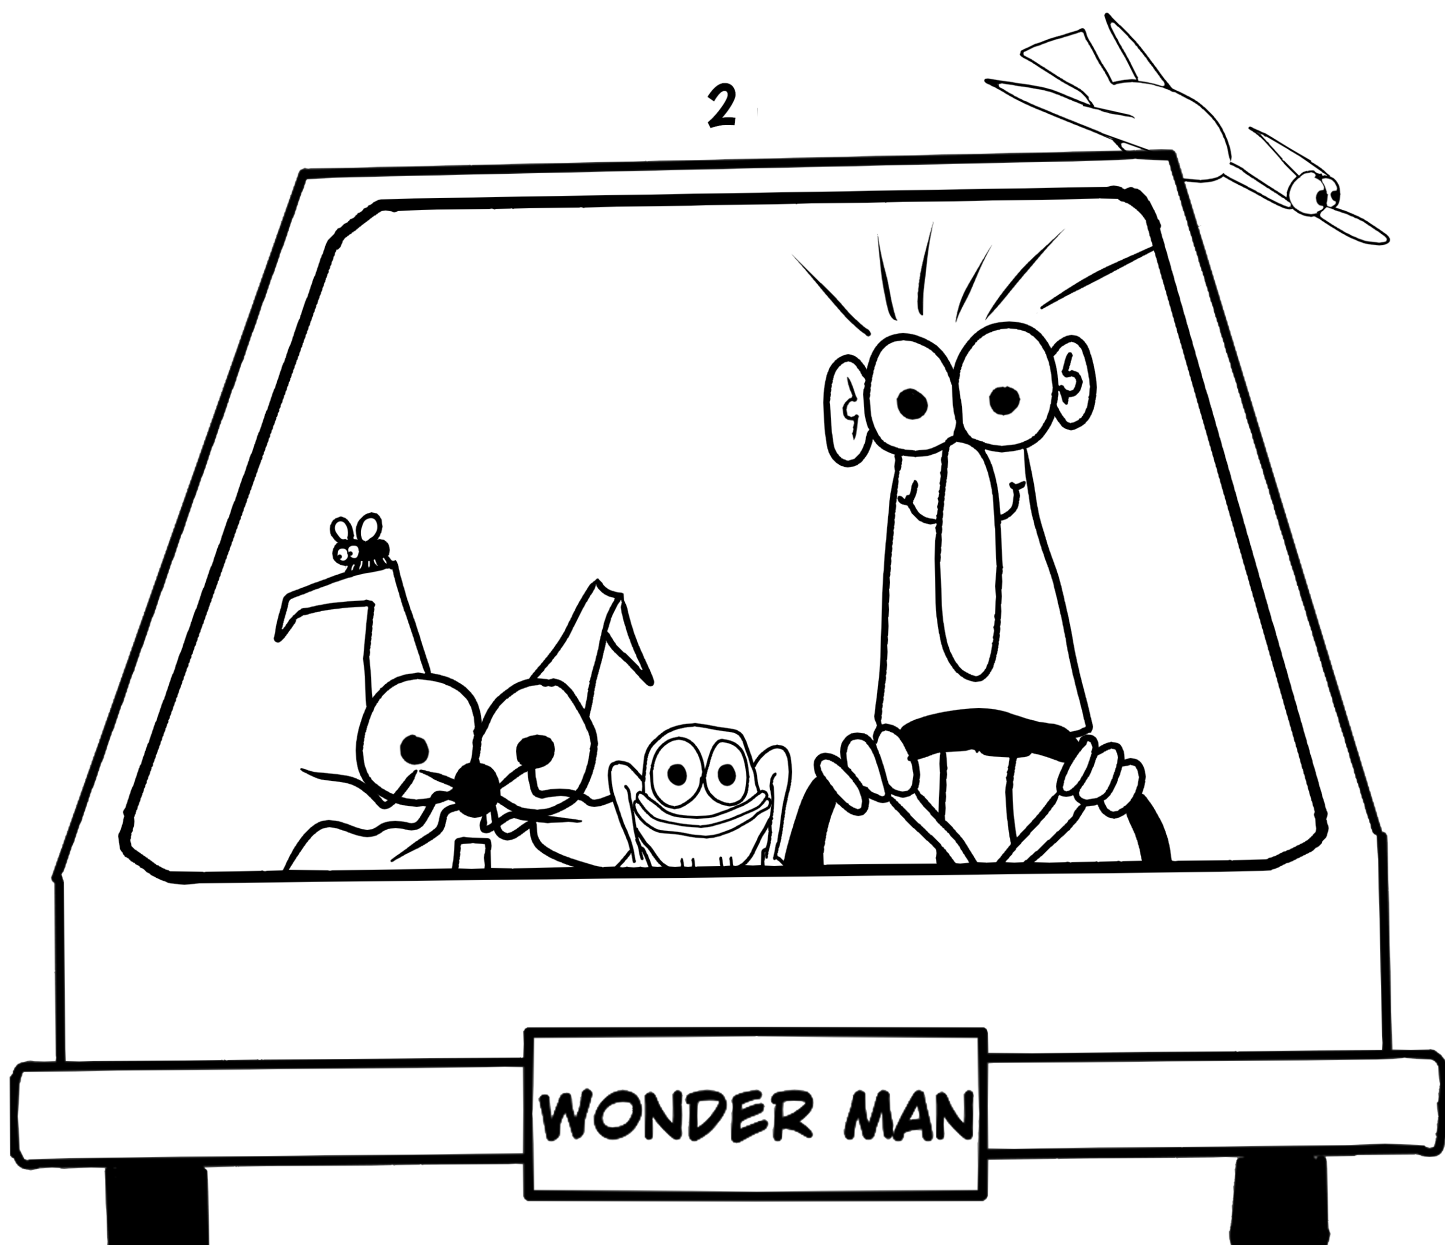

"Cat In A Bag"

short a consonant-vowel-consonant

Dan is a man. Dan has a van.
The van is tan. Dan is a man with a tan van. The van has a can.
Sam saw Dan in the van.

Sam saw a cat in the van. The cat was tan, like the van. The cat was not a bat. The cat was not a rat. the cat was a cat. The cat sat on a mat in the van.

Sam said, "I can tap on the van."
So Sam tapped on the van. Dan and Rat The Cat were in the van.
Dan and Rat The Cat saw Sam
tap on the van.

Dan said to Sam, "The cat's name is Pam."

But the cat's name was Rat.

Rat The Cat was angry!

Rat The Cat was so angry!
Rat said, "My name is not PAM!
My name is RAT!" Then Rat ran.
Rat ran past Sam. Rat ran past
Dan. Rat The Cat ran, ran, RAN!

Sam said, "Pam is angry."

Dan said, "The cat is Rat, not Pam. And Rat The Cat IS angry. My bad."

Sam and Dan were in a jam.

Rat The Cat took a nap in a bag. Can Sam and Dan find Rat The Cat in the bag?

Yes! Sam and Dan CAN find
Rat The Cat in the bag!
They can find Rat with a ham!
Oh no!
